

Travel, Writing, and the Ethics of Observation

Lancaster University, County Main MR2 and FASS Building MR 2/3
Thursday June 16th, 10:00am – 5:00pm

A free, one-day event featuring a writing workshop, a photography exhibition and presentations from Richard Hanson, Dr. Corinne Fowler and Dr. Harry Whitehead, organised by Lancaster University in collaboration with the University of Leicester. To see the full programme, please visit: <http://www.transculturalwriting.com/>

Workshop: Travel, Writing and the Ethics of Observation

County Main MR 2, 10:00 am - 12:30 pm

Corinne Fowler and Harry Whitehead, University of Leicester

Photographic Exhibition: 'Haiti: Beyond the Rubble'

FASS Building, Meeting Room 2/3, 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm

An exhibition of photographer Richard Hanson's images taken in Haiti after the 2010 earthquake. www.hansonphoto.co.uk

Panel Discussion

FASS Building, Meeting Room 2/3, 3:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Chaired by Professor Graham Mort, the discussion will include the following presentations:

'Faking the Facts in The Cannibal Spirit'

Dr. Harry Whitehead

'Haiti Beyond the Rubble'

Richard Hanson

'Travel writing, fiction and affection: the case of Paraguay'

Dr. Corinne Fowler

Photo: Richard Hanson/Tearfund